A Higher Call Mens Conference

at the
Gaylord Evangelical Free Church
Saturday, April 18, 2009
8:00 am - 5:00 pm

This inspirational conference is designed to bring you closer to God through the testimonies of four outstanding Christian men. Invite a friend or bring a family member. Dads are encouraged to bring their teenage sons. Young or old, you will be blessed, challenged and encouraged by these motivating speakers.

Learn more about your Higher Call with these great speakers:

ERNIE HARWELL
Sports Commentator

Ernie began his career as a radio commentator in 1940 and is the longtime voice of the Detroit Tigers. His vivid descriptions of games have earned him the respect of fans and his peers. Harwell was inducted into the Radio Hall of Fame in 1998.

BOB SMILEY
Stand-up Comedian

Bob has done stand-up for more than 12 years all over the U.S., Canada, England, Wales and even third world countries like El Salvador and East Kentucky. He's opened for such groups as Newsboys, Mercy Me, Third Day, Switch Foot, Toby Mac and Audio Adrenaline.

JIMMY GRETZINGER
*From TV's
"Michigan Outdoors"*

Always on the water or in the woods while growing up in Ludington, MI, Jimmy learned many of his outdoor passions from his father and friends. In 1998 he jumped at the chance to join the Michigan Out-of-Doors team and in 2001 became the Executive Producer of the show.

KENT BOTTENFIELD
CCM Recording Artist

So how does a kid from Portland end up on the mound of the Major League Baseball All Star game? How does that same guy become, after a near fatal heart condition, a national CCM recording artist? The guy who has actually lived this life, sums it up in one word- God. To Kent there is no other explanation... no other possible answer. I have seen God work through an empty vessel, me."
